ROYAL WARRANT

FOR

THE OFFICIAL ROLL OF BARONETS.

Whitehall, February 11, 1910.

The KING has been pleased to issue a Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, to the following effect:—

EDWARD, R. & I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these Presents shall come Greeting!

Whereas the Hereditary Degree of Baronet was instituted by Our Royal Predecessor King James the First in the ninth year of His Reign with divers privileges and pre-eminences, and certain Rules were made by His Majesty for the preservation of the Dignity of the Baronetage:

And whereas by Warrants under the hand of Our Royal Predecessor King George the Third further Rules were established for the prevention of abuses touching the status of Baronets:

And whereas on the third day of November, one thousand nine hundred and five, a Committee was appointed to consider and report what steps should be taken to safeguard the status of holders of Baronetcies, and to prevent the assumption of the title of Baronet by persons who have no right thereto:

And whereas it has been represented to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, to whom the Committee appointed as aforesaid reported on the twelfth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six, that divers abuses have crept into the said Order, and that persons have assumed the title of Baronet without any just right:

Know ye therefore that We have thought fit to signify Our Royal Will and Pleasure that for the correction of such abuses and for preventing the like in future, the following regulations and Ordinances be established: And We do accordingly hereby declare and ordain

I. That from and after the date of these Presents an official Roll of Baronets shall be prepared and kept in the Office of Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

II. That no person whose name is not entered on the official Roll of Baronets shall be received as a Baronet, or shall be addressed or mentioned by that title in any civil or military Commission, Letters Patent or other official document.

III. That the Roll shall be prepared in consultation with one or other of the Kings of Arms (Garter, Lyon or Ulster) according to their respective heraldic jurisdiction: That such Roll shall be revised and corrected from time to time and shall be submitted to Us and to Our Successors once in each year, and shall be published annually in the London, Edinburgh, and Dublin Gazettes, and be placed on sale; and that any person whose name does not appear on the Roll, but who considers that he is entitled to be enrolled therein, shall be at liberty to petition Us through Our said Secretary of State.

That every person who shall succeed to the title and degree of Baronet or shall claim to be entitled by right of succession to be placed on the Roll subsequently to its first issue shall exhibit his claim to such succession, with the proofs thereof, to one of Our Kings of Arms according to their respective heraldic jurisdiction, who shall forthwith make a Report thereon, and submit the said claim and Report to Our said Secretary of State.

IV. That if in any such case, or in any circumstances whatever, Our said Secretary of State finds difficulty in advising Us as to the validity of the claims of any person to be placed or to be retained on the Roll he shall refer the matter either to Our Attorney-General for England, to the Lord Advocate for Scotland or to Our Attorney-General for Ireland for his opinion thereon, and may on consideration of that opinion direct that the said matter be referred to Our Privy Council to submit the same to examination and to advise Us thereon.

V. That in cases of reference to Our Law Officers or to Our Privy Council parties claiming to have their names placed or retained on the Roll must supply, at their own cost, all necessary evidence that may be called for.

VI. That the form and contents of the Roll of the Baronetage shall be settled and determined in accordance with Regulations to be made by Our said Secretary of State.

VII. That Our said Secretary of State shall appoint an Officer of the Home Department to be Registrar of the Baronetage.

VIII. That subject to the directions of Our said Secretary of State the Registrar of the Baronetage shall be charged with the duty of keeping the Roll and of making all necessary entries and deletions in it and of publishing the Roll annually, and shall be responsible for its contents and shall initiate enquiries and proceedings when necessary to ensure the correctness of the Roll.

IX. That the Registrar shall attend to the service of the Baronetage, and shall execute such directions as he may receive from Our said Secretary of State in all matters pertaining thereto.

X. That every person who succeeds to the title and degree of Baronet or is created a Baronet or is placed or claims to be placed on the Roll subsequently to its first issue shall pay to Our said Secretary of State or to some person deputed by him a Fee of Five Pounds; and each such Fee shall be paid into Our Exchequer in manner to be directed by the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury.

XI. That every person who after the date of these Presents succeeds to the title and degree of Baronet or who is created a Baronet shall within six months of such succession or creation as the case may be register his full names and the full names and ages of his living descendants at Our College of Arms or Our Lyon or Ulster Offices of Arms.

XII. That the Warrants under the hand of His late Majesty King George the Third dated the 3rd December, 1783, the 24th February, 1785, and the 30th September, 1789, respectively, shall be and are hereby cancelled and made void and of no effect.

XIII. That nothing in this Our Warrant shall be deemed to abolish or derogate from the jurisdiction, authority and rights of Our Earl Marshal and Hereditary Marshal of England, or of Our Kings of Arms, save in so far as the same may be affected by the cancelling of the aforesaid Warrants of the 3rd December, 1783, the 24th February, 1785, and the 30th September, 1789.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the eighth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the tenth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.

H. J. Gladstone.

PRECEDENCE.

GENERAL REMARKS

In the thirty-first year of King Henry VIII., Parliament, by statutory enactment, took cognizance of Precedence. It then passed the "Act for Placing the Lords," which, although it concerned directly only the Great Officers of State, and referred but incidentally to the places of the Nobility, has since been considered the chief authority for the marshalling of dignities. This Act was originated by the desire of the King, and it is declared, as a preliminary, that although it appertained altogether to the Royal Prerogative to give such honour, reputation, and placing to his Councillors and others his subjects as should be seeming to the King's most excellent wisdom, the King was nevertheless pleased and contented for an order to be had and taken in his Most High Court of Parliament for the placing of the Great Officers and Lords. In addition to this Act of Parliament, the Scale of Precedence is sustained by royal ordinances and ancient usage. The least interference, unless made by Royal or Parliamentary authority, would be destructive of the right of some one entitled to rank on the scale.

The Law of Precedence, though thus confirmed temp. Henry VIII., dates from a far more distant era than the "Act for Placing the Lords." Regulations concerning it were officially issued at various periods long antecedent. The first, in point of date, was "The Order of all Estates of Nobles and Gentry of England," framed in 1339, and the last officially issued before the Statute of Henry VIII., the series ordinum of the reign of Henry VII., which Coke considers of the highest authority. The Statute of Henry VIII. was in the nature of a declaratory Act, confirming the ancient and pre-existing Law of Precedence, and, in confirmation of this, it is a matter of historical fact that the advice of Garter King of Arms was taken before the bill was brought in.

The next important decrees of Precedence were those of King James I., dated 1612 and 1616. A dispute had arisen between Barons' and Viscounts' younger sons, and the then newly created order of Baronets, as to which should take the higher place, and it was finally determined by the King himself in favour of the Peers' sons.

A leading principle of the Law of Precedence is that precedence emanates from father or husband, and cannot be derived from a female, unless in the case of a Peeress in her own right. The daughter and sole heiress of the first Duke of the Kingdom (unless a Peeress in her own right), would confer no higher precedence on her son, than if she were the daughter of a simple citizen.

It is very difficult to determine when precedence, in the descendants of Dukes, Princes of the Blood Royal, ends. Miles, in his Catalogue of Honour of the time of James I., a work of deep research, compiled from the MSS. of his uncle, the learned Robert Glover, Somerset Herald, at a period when the subject of precedence was much canvassed and considered, asserts that "Dukes descended of the Royal Blood," take place above Dukes not descended of the Royal Blood. How far Glover was borne out in this statement I have not been able to discover, but I must confess my own opinion is very much in accordance with his. At the Court of France, under the old régime, the Royal Family and its descendants were always first.

The question of the precedence of the Great Officers of State of Ireland and Scotland with reference to similar officers in England, is not provided for by the Acts of Union, and has never yet been definitely settled, unless, indeed, the placing of the Lord Chancellor of Ireland next to the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, at the Coronation of King William IV., be deemed a royal settlement of the point. Selden is of opinion that "The lists that show practice and custom in matters of precedence, are seen in the published assemblies of the States and other solemnities of Coronations, funerals, and the like."

SCALE OF GENERAL OR SOCIAL PRECEDENCE.

THE precedence here indicated is that which is known as general of social precedence, and is admitted on all occasions and in all society. The Clergy, the Bar, the Military, and other classes have amongst themselves a certain relative rank; but such relative rank is peculiar to each of these classes, and gives them no position on the general or social scale. The following scale comprises those only who enjoy dignities, or (in case of men) official appointments coming within some one of the authorities here cited of statute, patent, or usage.

The marks, or absence of marks show the authorities.

- * Denotes by Statute, 31 Henry VIII., cap. 10.
- † ——— by Statute, 1 William and Mary, cap. 21.
- ‖ ——— by Letters Patent, 9, 10, & 14 James I.
- ¶ ——— by Statute, 1 Edward VI., c. 7, s. 3, which enumerates the then names of dignity thus, "Duke, Archbishop, Marquis, Earl, Viscount, Baron, Bishop, Knight, Justice of either Bench, or Serjeant-at-law."
- ——— by Ancient Usage and Established Custom

The numbers prefixed to the various steps in the scale are arbitrarily chosen for the purpose of determining relative precedence.

These legal functionaries are the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, the Attorney-General, the Solicitor-General, the Serjeants-at-Law, and the Judges of the Court of Bankruptcy.

RULES OF PRECEDENCE.

I.—Men of Official Rank, who have higher personal precedence, are placed according to that higher personal precedence.

II.—It is Men's rank that confers precedence and regulates State Ceremonials. At the King's Courts, where husbands and wives pass His Majesty together, the precedence of the husbands is that which is regarded.

III.—The Wives and Children of Great Officers of State and of all of those who derive their places on the scale from official rank, have no consequent precedence, nor have the wives and children of Archbishops and Bishops.

IV.—A Lady, having precedence by birth (for instance, the daughter of a Peer, Baronet, or Knight), retains her innate rank and precedence although married to a Commoner, but if she be married to a Peer, her precedence is that of her husband.

V.—Widows of Peers, Baronets, and Knights, on marrying Commoners, continue by the etiquette of society, though not by law, to retain their titles and precedence. At a Coronation or other state ceremonial, widows of Peers who have married Commoners are not summoned to attend; this rule was followed at the funeral of the Duke of Wellington. In society it is different, and the widows of Peers, Baronets, and Knights, married to untitled Commoners, generally adhere to the titles acquired by their first marriages, although the practice is not derived from right. Widows of "Honorables" who subsequently marry Commoners (not sons of Peers), are not allowed, even by the etiquette of society, to retain the prefix of "Honorable" after such subsequent marriages.

VI.—A Peeress in her own right does not lose her rank and precedence by marriage or widowhood; if she be married to a Peer of higher degree than her own, she has her husband's precedence.

VII.—Daughters of Peers, Baronets, and Knights, and other persons of dignity, rank next immediately after the wives of their eldest brothers.

VIII.—Dowager Peeresses, and Baronets' Widows take precedence of the wives of the existing Peers and Baronets of the same creations, from their being senior in the dignity, from their husbands having been nearer the succession; for instance, the Dowager Duchess of Beaufort has precedence of the wife of the present Duke of Beaufort; and on the same principle of being nearer the succession, the son of an existing Peer has precedence above the son of a previous holder of the same title.

IX.—Peers and Peeresses take rank among themselves, thus—I., of England; II., of Scotland; III., of Great Britain; IV., of Ireland; and V. of the United Kingdom and of Ireland, created since the Union, according to the dates of the respective patents.

X.—Maids of Honour to Her Majesty the Queen take rank after Barons' daughters, and are allowed the prefix of "Hon."

XI.—The Baronets of England, the Baronets of Ireland, the Baronets of Scotland, the Baronets of Great Britain, and the Baronets of the United Kingdom, take rank among themselves according to the dates of their respective patents. The Act of Union of Great Britain and Ireland, which fixes the precedence of the different orders of the Peerage, enacts no other precedence nor does it interfere with or disturb in the slightest degree any other forms of precedence that might then have been in force. It is silent as to the English, Irish, or Scotch Baronets, and consequently whatever precedence their original patents conferred, is not affected by that enactment. For instance, Sir Algernon Coote inherits a Baronetcy of Ireland, conferred in 1621, and, has, by right, the precedence of that date. There is no law or statute to deprive him of it, or to make him give place, for instance, to Sir Henry Michael Hawley, whose great-grandfather, Henry Hawley, was created a Baronet of Great Britain in 1795. Some argue that as the Act of Union fixed the precedence of the Peers of the Three Kingdoms, the precedence of the Baronets may be assumed by analogy; but surely no lawyer or herald would admit the power of "analogy" to destroy a right derived by Patent from the Crown.

XII.—Privy-Councillors of Great Britain and Privy-Councillors of Ireland, take rank, inter se, according to the dates of their being sworn in.

XIII.—Ambassadors yield precedence only to members of the Royal Family of the Court to which they are accredited, and to the sons and brothers of Crowned Heads. Foreign Ministers and Envoys have no real claim to precedence. The question was raised and settled at the Congress of Vienna, in 1815, but of late years place has been allowed them in this country, after Dukes and before Marquesses.

XIV.—Esquires—Armiger, or Esquire, is not, like those names given in the Statute 1 Edward VI., c. 7, s. 3, a name of dignity, but is (as is also, according to Sir Edward Cooke, Gentleman or Yeoman) a name of worship, and cannot be attached to any of the dignities mentioned in the Statute of Edward VI. The different classes to whom the title of Esquire belongs are:—

1. The sons of all the peers and lords of parliament during the lives of their fathers; the younger sons of peers after the death of their fathers; the eldest sons of the younger sons of peers and their eldest sons in perpetual succession.
2. Noblemen of other nations.
3. The eldest (and we think, if any, all the) sons of baronets, and the eldest sons of knights.
4. Esquires created expressly with a collar of SS., and spurs of silver—now obsolete.
5. Persons to whom the King gives arms by his own letters patent, with the title of Esquire.
6. Esquires of the Bath, and the eldest sons of those Esquires, pursuant to the statutes of the Order.
7. Barristers-at-law, by their office or profession.
8. Justices of the peace, and mayors, while in the commission, or in office.
9. Persons chosen Esquires to the body of the Prince—now obsolete.
10. Persons attending on the Sovereign's coronation in some notable employment, or persons employed in any superior office of trust (where they have discretionary power, and are not, such as clerks, merely ministerial) under the Crown, or serving in some place of better note in the King's household.
11. Persons who are styled Esquires by the King in their patents, commissions, or appointments, such as sheriffs of counties, or officers in the navy and in the army so described in their commissions.
12. Attorneys in colonies, where the departments of counsel and attorney are united.

XV.—H.M. Lieutenant of a County and the High Sheriff of a County are given the first places in their own counties during their term of office. Doubts as to the relative precedence of these in England and Wales were set at rest by Royal Warrant, 18th Feb. 1904, which gave precedence to the Lieutenant of a County before the Sheriff of the County.

XVI.—Archbishops take precedence of all Dukes next to those of the Blood Royal. The Archbishop of Canterbury ranks as first lord, and the Archbishop of York as third coming immediately after the Lord Chancellor.

XVII.—By an act of parliament passed in the thirty-first year of Henry VIII., it was settled that Bishops take precedence of all Barons, and immediately after Viscounts; the Bishops of London, Durham, and Winchester, preceding their Right Reverend brethren, who take rank among themselves according to seniority of consecration.

XVIII.—Privy Councillors not being Peers or holding certain offices, are placed immediately after Knights of the Garter. In the Privy Council, all persons who have higher rank than that of Privy Councillor take precedence according to such higher rank. All who have no such higher rank take precedence according to the date of their being sworn into the Privy Council.

XIX.—Special precedence is assigned to the Lord Chief Justice of England and the Master of the Rolls by virtue of their offices. The precedence of the other Judges (who take rank among themselves according to seniority of appointment) is as follows:—

Lords Justices of Appeal and the President of the Probate Divorce and Admiralty Divisions.

Judges of the High Court of Justice.

Judges of County Courts, Serjeants-at-Law, Masters in Chancery, and Masters in Lunacy follow the Knights Bachelors, and precede the Companions of the several Orders of Knighthood.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

REGULATIONS ANNEXED TO THE VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY OF JUNE 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

PROTOCOL OF CONFERENCE OF THE FIVE POWERS. AIX-LA-CHAPELLE, NOVEMBER 21, 1818. (MINISTERS RESIDENT.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE BETWEEN CONSULAR OFFICERS AND NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS.

The comparative rank of Consular Officers, and of Officers in His Majesty's Naval and Military Services, is as follows:—

Agents and Consuls-General or Commissioners and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals, and with, but after, Rear-Admirals, except in the cases of the Agents and Consuls-General of Egypt and Zanzibar, who, occupying positions similar to those of Governors, take precedence of all Flag Officers.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadiers and Commodores.

Consuls rank with, but after, Colonels, and Captains, R.N., of three years' standing, and before all other such Captains.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Majors and Lieutenants, R.N., of eight years' standing.

Consular-Agents rank with, but after, Captains in the Army, and Lieutenants, R.N., of less than eight years' standing.

Consular Officers will take rank in their respective grades according to the dates of their exequators.

PRECEDENCE BETWEEN MEMBERS OF THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE AND NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS ATTACHED TO EMBASSIES AND MISSIONS ABROAD.

(In force December, 1899.)

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to His Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the Mission for the time being, whatever his designation.

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to His Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Councillor of Embassy or to the First Secretary at posts where the staff does not include a Councillor.

RELATIVE RANK OF THE OFFICERS OF THE NAVY AND ARMY.

The relative rank of Officers of the Navy with each other and with Officers of the Army shall be as laid down in the following List, and shall in every case take effect according to the dates of their respective commissions, or appointments, except when the relative rank is dependent on the attainment of seniority or completion of service, in which case it shall take effect from such attainment of seniority or completion of service in the particular rank.

Nothing contained in these regulations is to give a claim to any Officer of the Navy to assume command of His Majesty's Land Forces on shore, nor to any Officer of the Army to assume command of any of His Majesty's squadrons or Ships, or of any of the Officers or Men thereunto belonging, unless under special authority from the Government in England for any particular Service. But when Officers of the Navy are employed on shore, on joint service with His Majesty's Land Forces, their relative rank shall carry with it all precedence and advantages attaching to the rank with which it corresponds (except command as aforesaid), and shall regulate the choice of quarters, rates of lodging money, servants, forage, fuel, and light, or allowances in their stead.

The precedence of the Naval Commander-in-Chief in India is next below the Commander-in-Chief in India, if not a Member of Council, and irrespective of their relative Military rank.

At Durbars, Processions, and other Public Ceremonies in India, a distinctive place will be assigned to the Senior Naval Officer on the spot in the absence of the Commander-in-Chief, without reference to his relative military rank.

Under the regulations formerly in force, the precedence of the Officer in command of His Majesty's Forces in any Colony, was dependent on the question whether or not he was entitled to administer the Government of the Colony in the absence of the Governor. But the alteration of circumstances has rendered this arrangement in some cases inconvenient or anomalous, therefore it is His Majesty's pleasure that the following rules be now observed in the Colonies in regard to the precedency of Members of the Royal Family and of Military and Naval Officers in command of His Majesty's Forces:—

a. Any Member of the Royal Family, present in a Colony, shall rank therein next after the Governor thereof.

b. The Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of the rank of an Admiral, and the Senior Officer in command of the Troop, if of the rank of a General, are to have precedency next after the Governor (and any Member of the Royal Family present) their own relative rank being determined by the King's Regulations, and Governors of other Colonies shall rank next after such Naval and Military Officers.

c. The Senior Officer in command of the troops, if of the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, and the Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of equivalent rank, are to have precedency next after the Bishop and the Chief Justice, their own relative rank being determined by the King's Regulations on that subject.

d. If below the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, the Senior Officer in command of the Troops, and the Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, are to continue to take rank, as has heretofore been the case, next after the Solicitor-General.

† In all other matters wherein the army and navy administration are concerned, Fleet Surgeons will rank with and as Brigade Surgeons.

MILITARY RANK AND COMMAND.

An Officer appointed to command, or an Officer appointed second in command of a Regiment or Battalion in the Army shall exercise command over any other Officers serving therein, irrespectively of the date of appointment. All other Officers, except those of the Indian Staff Corps, doing duty with their Regiments shall take rank according to their dates of appointment in that rank to such Regiments, whether promoted on full-pay or appointed from half-pay; and all Officers serving together with Officers of other Corps shall take rank according to the dates of their respective appointments to that rank in the Army. Should two Officers of the same rank have been gazetted to such rank with the same date, their precedence shall, except in the case of an Officer appointed to command a Regiment or Battalion, be determined by the date of their next lower rank.

If an Officer be placed upon half-pay on account of ill-health caused by Military service, or under circumstances over which he had no control, and be subsequently brought back to full-pay in the same rank and Corps or Department, he shall, for precedence in his rank, take the same numerical position as he occupied when placed on half-pay.

If an Officer placed on half-pay on account of wounds, or of sickness caused by active service in the field, be subsequently brought back to full-pay in the same rank and Corps or Department, he shall, for precedence in his rank, revert to the original position in relation to the Officers of his Corps or Department held by him when placed on half-pay, except that, should any Officers have been promoted during his absence, he shall not be entitled to supersede them in the rank to which they had been promoted, nor have any right himself to promotion until after his restoration to full pay in the Corps or Department, and then only in ordinary succession.

Officers of the Army, serving in any British Colony or Dependency, with rank granted by the King, shall have precedence of Colonial Officers of equal rank, but if holding local rank conferred upon them by the Colonial authorities, shall take rank with Colonial Officers according to the dates of their respective Colonial ranks; provided that Colonels serving in the Dominion of Canada, with rank granted by the King, or by the General Officer Commanding the Forces there, shall have precedence of, and command over, all Colonial Officers; and also that Field Officers of the Regular Forces in a Colony or Dependency shall have precedence of, and command over, Field Officers of the Permanent, Militia, and Volunteer Forces there, if so ordered by the Governor. Local or temporary rank granted to an Officer of the Army on assuming command of Colonial Forces, or when proceeding to a Colony for any Special Service, shall be conferred by the King.

Officers of the Regular Forces, and Officers of the Militia who take rank with Officers of the Regular Forces as the youngest of their degree, shall have precedence of and command the Officers of equal degree serving in the Hon. Artillery Company, Yeomanry Cavalry, and Volunteer Corps; and the Officers of the Hon. Artillery Company, Yeomanry Cavalry, and Volunteer Corps shall rank together according to the dates of their respective ranks. Other questions of precedence among Officers of the same rank in different branches of the Services, when on duty, shall be subject to such Regulations as the Secretary of State may from time to time make.

The numbers prefixed to the foregoing titles are only of use for purposes of relative precedence and do not denote the actual number of existing peerages nor the actual numerical position of each Peer in his own grade, for recently extinct peerages are included in the list, and the numbers themselves are not consecutive throughout, owing to the extinction of peerages to which certain numbers were originally assigned.

The actual number of existing Peers and Peeresses in their own right is 712, of these 3 are Royal Dukes, 28 Dukes, 37 Marquesses, 208 Earls, 1 Countess, 77 Viscounts, 1 Viscountess, 341 Barons, and 15 Baronesses.

BARONETCIES IN ORDER OF PRECEDENCE.

Baronetcies recently extinct or dormant are marked in italics.
Baronetcies merged in Peerages are omitted.

THE MOST HONOURABLE ORDER OF THE BATH.

Instituted in 1399. Revived in 1725. Enlarged in 1815 and 1847.

On the 2nd of Jan. 1815, it was declared that, "for the purpose of commemorating the auspicious termination of the long and arduous contest in which this empire has been engaged," the order should be composed of three classes, and on the 14th April, 1847, it was further extended by the addition of civil knights commanders and companions, on which occasion new Statutes were promulgated for the government of the Order. The numbers of the ordinary members declared by subsequent statutes are as follows, viz.,

1st Class—to consist of knights grand cross; number not to exceed, for the military service, fifty-five exclusive of the Sovereign and princes of the blood royal, and such distinguished foreigners as may be nominated honorary knights grand cross; and twenty-seven for the civil service.

2nd Class—Knights commanders, numbers not to exceed or the military service, one hundred and forty-five, and for the civil service one hundred and eight, exclusive of foreign officers, who may be admitted as honorary knights commanders. In the event of actions of signal distinction, or of future wars, the numbers may be increased of this as well as of the third class. The members of the second class are entitled to the distinctive appellation of knighthood, after having been invested with the Insignia; to take precedence of Knights Bachelors; to wear the badge, &c., pendent by a red ribbon round the neck, the star embroidered on the left side.

3rd Class—Companions of the Order, to consist, for military service, of seven hundred and five and for the civil service of two hundred and ninety-eight; they are to take precedence of esquires, but are not entitled to the appellation, style, &c., of knights bachelors. To wear the badge assigned to the third class, pendent by a narrow red ribbon from the left breast. No officer can be nominated to the military division of the third class of the Order, unless his services have been marked by special mention of his name as having distinguished himself in action against the enemy. This class has never been conferred upon any officer below the rank of major in the army and commander in the navy.

Additional Members have been appointed to the Order with the same rights and privileges as belong to ordinary members.

The Badge for the Military Classes of the Order is a gold Maltese cross, of eight points enamelled, argent; in the four angles, a lion passant-guardant, or; in the centre, the rose, thistle, and shamrock, issuant from a sceptre between three imperial crowns, or, within a circle, gules; thereon the motto of the Order, surrounded by two branches of laurel, proper, issuing from an escrol, azure, inscribed Ich Dien (I serve), in letters of gold. It is worn by the knights grand cross pendent from a red ribbon across the right shoulder, by the knights commanders from the neck, and by the companions from the button-hole.

The Collar is of gold (weight, thirty ounces Troy weight), and is composed of nine imperial crowns and eight roses, thistle, and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre, enamelled in their proper colours, tied or linked together with seventeen gold knots, enamelled white, having the badge of the Order pendent therefrom.

The Star of the Military Grand Cross is formed of rays or flames of silver thereon a gold Maltese cross, and in the centre, within the motto, branches of laurel, issuant as in the badge.

The Civil Knights Grand Cross retain the old badge and star of the Order. The Star is of silver formed with eight points or rays, charged with three imperial crowns, proper, upon a glory of silver rays, surrounded with a red circle, upon which is the motto of the Order. Their badge is of gold, composed of a rose, thistle, and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre between three imperial crowns, encircled by the motto. The civil knights commanders wear the same badge, of a smaller size, round the neck by a red ribbon, and the civil companions the same, but of a still smaller size, from the button-hole, pendent from a red ribbon.

The Star of the Knights Commanders is in the form of a cross-patée of silver, having the same centre as the knights grand cross, but without a gold Maltese cross thereon. The star of the civil knights commanders is of the same form and size, only omitting the laurel wreath round the circle containing the motto and the escrol with the words "Ich dien" underneath.

The Military Members of the Order are indicated in the following lists thus (M.), the Civil Members thus (C.).

Registrar and Secretary—The Comptroller of the Lord Chamberlain's Office for the time being (Col. Sir Douglas Frederick Rawdon Dawson, G.C.V.O., C.M.G.).

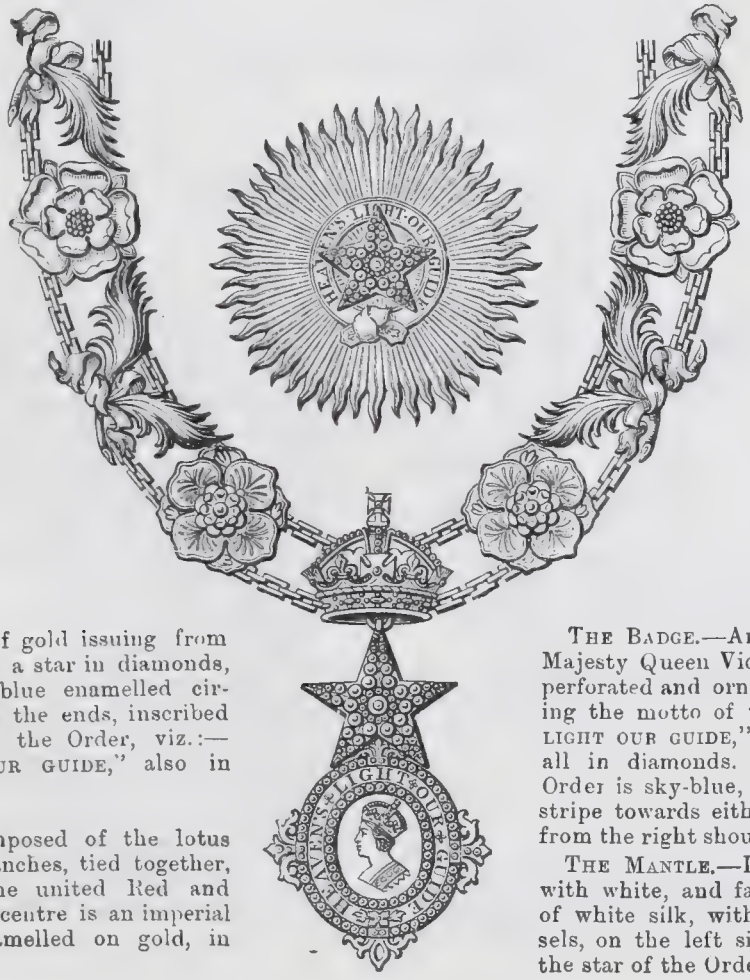
THE MOST EXALTED ORDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA.

Instituted by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, February 23rd, 1861, enlarged, March 28th, 1866, again 1875, 1876, 1897, January 1st, 1903, and January 1st, 1909.

The Order consists of the Sovereign, a Grand Master, and 291 Ordinary Companions together with such Extra and Honorary Members as the Sovereign, his heirs and successors, shall from time to time appoint. The 291 Ordinary Members are divided into three Classes:—the first Class consists of 36 Members, styled Knights Grand Commanders (ex-Viceroys are additional); the second Class consists of 85 Members, styled Knights Commanders; the third Class consists of 170 Members, styled Companions, and of such Honorary Members as the Sovereign thinks fit to appoint to the Order. The Viceroy and Governor-General of India for the time being is Grand Master.

The statutes enable the Sovereign to confer the dignity of Knight Grand Commander of the Order upon Princes and Chiefs of India as shall have entitled themselves to His Majesty's favour, and upon such of His Majesty's British subjects as have, by important and loyal services rendered by them to the Indian Empire, merited the Royal favour; and the second and third Classes upon persons who, by their conduct or services in the Indian Empire, or after not less than thirty years' service in the department of His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, have merited the Royal favour.



THE STAR.—Rays of gold issuing from centre, having thereon a star in diamonds, resting upon a light blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order, viz.:—"HEAVEN'S LIGHT OUR GUIDE," also in diamonds.

THE COLLAR.—Composed of the lotus of India, of palm branches, tied together, in saltier, and of the united Red and White Rose. In the centre is an imperial crown; all richly enamelled on gold, in their proper colours.

THE BADGE.—An onyx cameo of Her Majesty Queen Victoria's effigy, set in a perforated and ornamented oval, containing the motto of the Order, "HEAVEN'S LIGHT OUR GUIDE," surmounted by a star all in diamonds. The Ribbon of the Order is sky-blue, having a narrow white stripe towards either edge, and is worn from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE MANTLE.—Light blue satin, lined with white, and fastened with a cordon of white silk, with blue and silver tassels, on the left side a representation of the star of the Order.

The Knights Commanders wear around their necks a riband of the same colours and pattern as that of the First Class, but two inches in width, hanging therefrom the Badge of a smaller size than that appointed for the Knights Grand Commanders except the star, which surmounts it, is of silver; on their left breast a star composed of rays of silver issuing from a gold centre, having thereon a silver star resting upon a blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order.

The Companions wear from the left breast a Badge of the same form as appointed for the Knight Commanders, but of a smaller size pendent to the like riband of the breadth of one inch and a half.

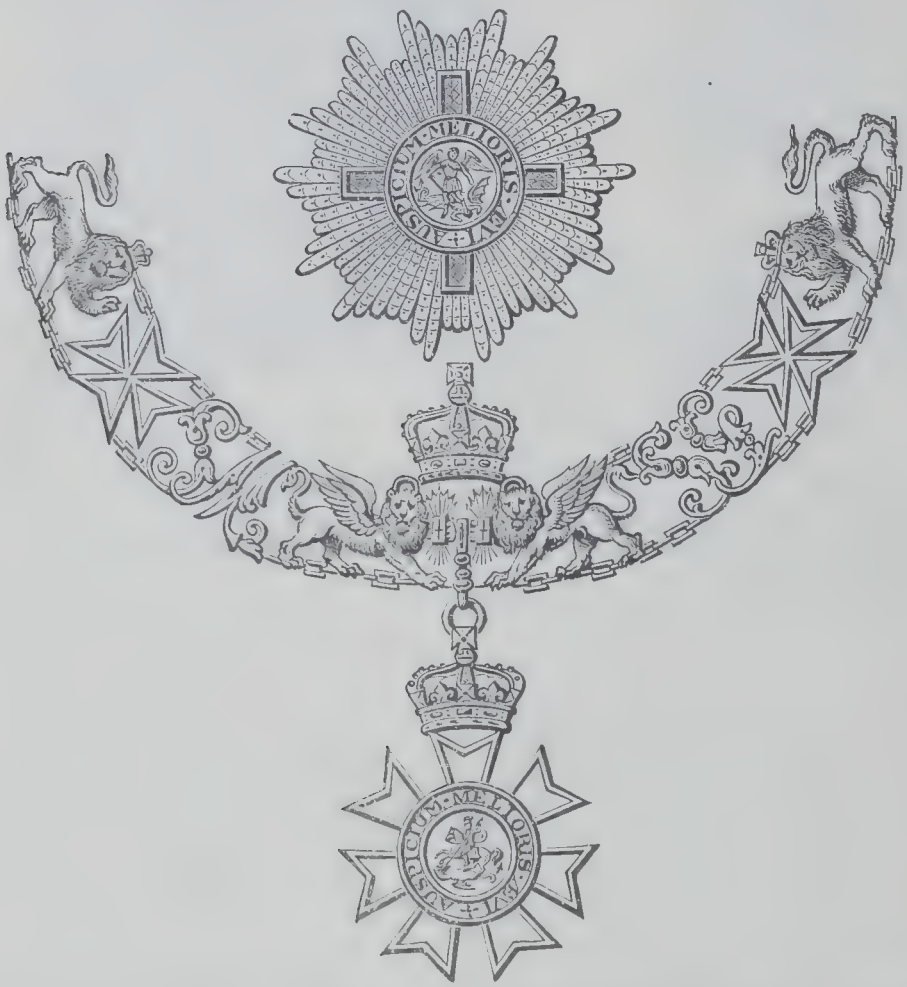
Registrar—The Comptroller of the Lord Chamberlain's Department for the time being (Col. Sir Douglas Frederick Rawdon Dawson, G.C.V.O., C.M.G.).

THE MOST DISTINGUISHED ORDER OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.

Instituted 27th April, 1818, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, and enlarged and extended 4th Dec. 1868, 30th May, 1877, and 30th Oct. 1902, for the natural born subjects of the Crown of the United Kingdom as may have held or shall hold high and confidential offices within His Majesty's colonial possessions, and in reward for services to the Crown in relation to the foreign affairs of the Empire, &c.

The Order is to consist of not more than one hundred Knights Grand Cross, exclusive of Extra and Honorary Members, three hundred Knights Commanders, and six hundred Companions.



THE members of the Order enjoy rank and precedency immediately after the corresponding classes of the Order of the Star of India : that is to say, the Knights Grand Cross after Knights Grand Commanders of the Star of India; the Knights Commanders after the Knights Commanders of the Star of India; and the Companions after the Companions of the Star of India. The Grand Master is the First and Principal Knight Grand Cross. The Knights Grand Cross are entitled to bear supporters, and to encircle their arms with the collar, ribbon, and motto of the Order. The Knights Commanders also encircle their arms with the ribbon and motto; and the Companions suspend the badge of the Order to their arms.

HABIT AND INSIGNIA.

THE STAR of a Knight Grand Cross is composed of seven rays of silver, having a small ray of gold between each of them, and over all the cross of St. George, gules. In the centre is a representation of the Archangel St. Michael encountering Satan, within a blue circle, inscribed with the motto, AUSPICIUM MELIORIS ÆVI.

THE COLLAR is formed alternately of lions of England, of Maltese crosses, and of the ciphers S M and S G, having in the centre the imperial crown, over two winged lions, passant-guardant, each holding a book, and seven arrows. At the opposite end of the collar are two similar lions. The whole is of gold except the crosses, which are of white enamel, and it is linked together by small gold chains.

THE BADGE is a gold cross of fourteen points of white enamel, edged with gold, having in the centre, on one side, the Archangel St. Michael encountering Satan, and on the other, St. George on horseback, encountering a dragon, within a blue circle, on which the motto of the Order is inscribed. The Cross is surmounted by the Imperial crown, and is worn by the Knights Grand Cross to the Collar, or to a wide Saxon-blue ribbon, with a scarlet stripe from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE MANTLE is of Saxon-blue satin, lined with scarlet silk, tied with cordons of blue and scarlet silk and gold, and has on the left side the star of a Knight Grand Cross.

THE CHAPEAU is of blue satin, lined with scarlet, and surmounted with white and black ostrich feathers.

THE KNIGHTS COMMANDERS wear the badge suspended to a narrower ribbon from the neck, and have on their left side a star composed of four rays, with a small cross of eight points in saltire, of silver, surmounted by the cross of St. George, gules, and having the same centre as the Star of the Grand Crosses.

THE COMPANIONS wear the small cross of the Order from a still narrower ribbon at the button-hole of their coats.

OFFICERS OF THE ORDER.

Secretary—Lieut.-Col. Sir Arthur Henry McMahon, K.C.I.E., C.S.I.
Registrar—Comptroller of the Lord Chamberlain's Office for the time being, Col. Sir Douglas Frederick Rawdon Dawson, G.C.V.O., C.M.G.

THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

Instituted by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Empress of India, 21st of April, 1896.

THE Order consists of the Sovereign, Ordinary Members, and such Honorary Members as the Sovereign, his heirs and successors, shall from time to time appoint; the Members being divided into five classes, and designated respectively:—Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commanders, Commanders, Members of the Fourth Class, and Members of the Fifth Class. The persons to be admitted as Ordinary Members of this Order shall be such persons, being subjects of the British Crown, as may have rendered extraordinary, or important, or personal, services to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, who have merited His Majesty's Royal Favour; and the Honorary Members of the several classes shall consist of those Foreign Princes and persons upon whom His Majesty may think fit to confer the honour of being received into the Order.

The Members of the several grades in the Order are to have place and precedence as follows:—The Knights Grand Cross next to and immediately after the Knights Grand Commanders of The Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, and the Knights Commanders next to and immediately after the Knights Commanders of The Most Eminent Order. The Commanders next to and immediately after Knights Bachelors of these Realms. The Members of the Fourth Class, after the Companions of the said Most Eminent Order, and the Members of the Fifth Class next to and immediately after the eldest sons of Knights Bachelors of these Realms. The number of Members is unlimited, and the Anniversary of the Order is the Twentieth day of June of every year, being the day of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria's Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

THE BADGE of Knights Grand Cross consists of a white enamelled Maltese cross, of eight points on an oval centre of crimson enamel the Royal and Imperial Monogram in gold within a blue enamelled circle, thereon the motto of the Order, namely, "VICTORIA," in letters of gold, the circle being surmounted by an Imperial crown enamelled in proper colours, the whole suspended from a dark blue riband with a narrow edge on either side of three stripes, red, white, and red, of the breadth of three inches and three-quarters, passing from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE STAR of Knights Grand Cross consists of a silver chipped star of eight points; in the centre, a representation of the Badge of the First Class of the Order.

The Knights Commanders wear around their necks a riband of the same colours and pattern as that of the Knights Grand Cross, of the breadth of one inch and three-quarters, and pendent therefrom the Badge which is of the same pattern as, but of smaller size than, that of a Knight Grand Cross. The Star is composed of a Maltese cross, in silver, with smaller rays issuing from the centre, between the angles of the cross; in the centre, the badge of the Order as before described, with the cross in frosted silver instead of white enamel.

The Commanders wear around their necks the like riband and badge as that appointed for the Knights Commanders, but are not entitled to wear the Star.

The Members of the Fourth Class wear a badge of the same form and appearance as that appointed for the Commanders, but of smaller size, pendent to a riband of the same colours, of the breadth of one inch and a quarter, attached from the left breast.

The Members of the Fifth Class wear, from the left breast, the same riband and badge as that appointed for the Fourth Class, with the exception that the cross is of frosted silver instead of white enamel.

THE SEAL of the Order is azure, a representation of the badge of the Order impaled with the Royal Arms with the circumscription "The Seal of the Royal Victorian Order."

THE APPOINTMENTS are made by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, sealed with the seal of the Order. The Sovereign may cancel and annul appointments and restore members.

THE INVESTITURE of Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commanders, and Commanders is performed by the Sovereign, who may delegate his powers, or dispense with investiture.

The Insignia of the Order are returned on promotion.

Knights Grand Cross may bear supporters to their arms and surround their arms with the circle and motto of the Order and suspend therefrom a representation of the riband and badge.

Knights Commanders and Commanders may surround their armorial bearings with the circle and motto of the Order and suspend therefrom a representation of the riband and badge.

Members of the Order may suspend a representation of the riband and badge from the bottom of the escutcheon bearing their arms.

The Officers of the Order are the Chancellor (the Chamberlain of the Household), who shall keep the Seal, and the Secretary (the Keeper of the Privy Purse), who shall keep the Register of the Royal Order.

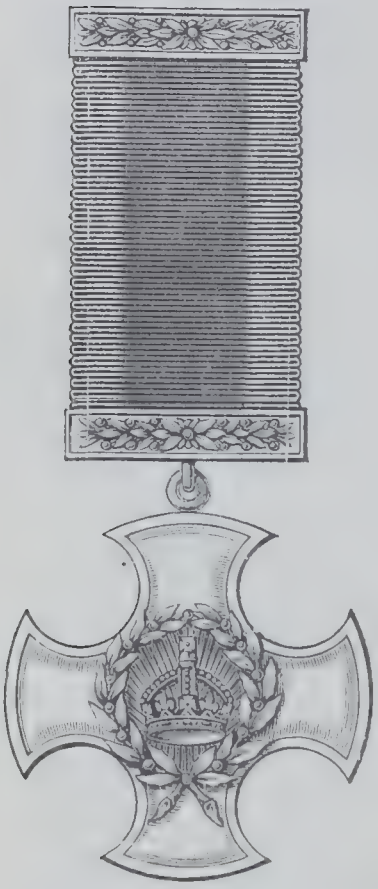
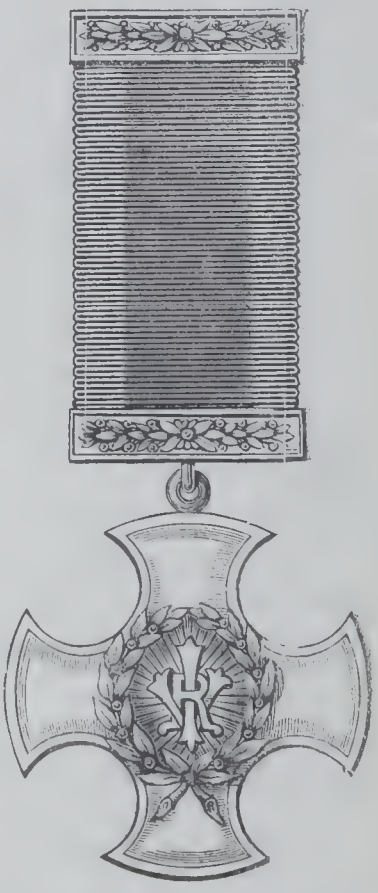
THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.

Instituted by Royal Warrant, dated 6th September, 1886.





VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen Defender of the Faith, Empress of India, to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Whereas We have taken into Our Royal consideration that the means of adequately rewarding the distinguished services of Officers in Our Naval and Military Services who have been honourably mentioned in Despatches are limited; now for the purpose of attaining an end so desirable as that of rewarding individual instances of meritorious or distinguished service in war, We have instituted and created and by these presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do institute and create a new Naval and Military Order of Distinction—to be designated as hereinafter described—which We are desirous should be highly prized by the Officers of Our Naval and Military Services, and We are graciously pleased to make, ordain, and establish the following rules and ordinances for the government of the same, which shall henceforth be inviolably observed and kept:

Firstly. It is ordained, that this Order shall henceforth be styled and designated the "Distinguished Service Order."

Secondly. It is ordained that the Order shall consist of the Sovereign, and of such Members or Companions as We, Our Heirs or Successors, shall appoint.

Thirdly. It is ordained that We, Our Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens Regnant of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperors and Empresses of India, are and for ever shall be Sovereigns of this Order.

Fourthly. It is ordained that no person shall be eligible for this distinction who doth not actually hold, at the time of his nomination, a Commission in Our Navy, in our Land Forces, or Marines, or Our Indian or Colonial Naval or Military Forces, or a Commission in one of the Departments of our Navy or Army, the holder of which is entitled to Honorary or relative Navy or Army rank, nor shall any person be nominated unless his services shall have been marked by the especial mention of his name, by the Admiral or Senior Naval Officer Commanding a Squadron or detached Naval Force, or by the Commander-in-Chief of the Forces in the Field, in Despatches for meritorious or distinguished service in the Field, or before the enemy.

Fifthly. It is ordained that Foreign Officers who have been associated in Naval and Military operations with Our Forces shall be eligible to be Honorary Members of this Order.

Sixthly. It is ordained that when We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be pleased to appoint any person to be a Member of this Order, such appointment shall be made by Warrant under our Sign Manual, and countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Seventhly. It is ordained that the decoration of the Order shall be and shall be worn as is hereinafter set forth.

Eighthly. It is ordained that an Officer shall be appointed to this Order, that is to say, a Secretary and Registrar.

Ninthly. It is ordained that the Secretary and Registrar of this Order shall be appointed by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and shall have the custody of the archives of the Order. He shall attend to the service of the Order, and shall execute such directions as he may receive from Our Principal Secretary of State for War.

Tenthly. It is ordained that this Order shall rank next to and immediately after Our Royal Victorian Order, and that the Companions thereof shall in all places and assemblies whatsoever have place and precedency next to and immediately after the Members of the 4th Class of the Royal Victorian Order, and shall rank among themselves according to the dates of their respective nominations.

Eleventhly. It is ordained that the Badge of the Order, which shall consist of a gold cross, enamelled white, edged gold, having on one side thereof in the centre, within a wreath of laurel enamelled green, the Imperial Crown in gold, upon a red enamelled ground, and on the reverse, within a similar wreath and on a similar red ground, Our Imperial and Royal cypher V.R.I., shall be suspended from the left breast by a red riband edged blue, of one inch in width.

Twelfthly. It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We may be pleased to confer the decoration shall be published in the "London Gazette," and a registry thereof kept in the Office of Our Secretary of State for War.

Lastly. We reserve to Ourself, Our Heirs, and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these Regulations or any part thereof by a notification under the Sign Manual of the Sovereign of the Order.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral this sixth day of September, in the fiftieth year of Our Reign, and in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

By a further Royal Warrant, dated 15th Oct., 1903, the cypher E.R. VII was substituted for that of V.R.I.

IMPERIAL SERVICE ORDER.

DECORATION FOR MEN.

DECORATION FOR LADIES.

This Order was instituted by Royal Warrant, 8 August, 1902. The original Statutes were subsequently revised, by Royal Warrant, dated 27 May, 1908.

STATUTES.

EDWARD R. and I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas by Warrants under Our Royal Sign Manual, dated the eighth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two, and the second year of Our Reign, and the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and six, and the sixth year of Our Reign, We being desirous of recognising more fully than had theretofore been possible the faithful and meritorious services rendered to Us by Members of the Civil Services of the various parts of Our Empire, did, for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, institute and create a new Civil Order of Distinction—to be designated the Imperial Service Order—and We were graciously pleased to Make, Ordain, and Establish Rules and Ordinances for the government of the same:

And whereas We are minded to make certain amendments and additions to the Statutes of the Order:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and in the exercise of the power vested in Us by the aforesaid Statutes, and in order to enable Us to carry this Our Will and Pleasure into effect, We do hereby abrogate the aforesaid Statutes of the eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and two, and the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and six, and the same are abrogated accordingly, but without prejudice to anything done thereunder: and in lieu thereof, We do by these presents Make, Ordain, and Establish the following Statutes and Ordinances:—

Firstly.—It is ordained that this Order shall henceforth be styled and designated "The Imperial Service Order."

Secondly.—It is ordained that the Order shall consist of the Sovereign, the Prince of Wales, and such Companions as We, our Heirs or Successors, shall appoint.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that We, Our Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens Regnant of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, Emperors and Empresses of India, are and for ever shall be Sovereigns of this Order.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that only the members of the administrative or clerical branches of Our Civil Services shall be eligible for the distinction of Companions of this Order.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that the number of Companions of the Order shall not exceed four hundred and twenty-five, of whom two hundred and fifty shall belong to Our Home Civil Service, and one hundred and seventy-five to the Civil Services of Our Colonies and Protectorates.

Sixthly.—It is ordained that no person shall be eligible to be a Companion of the Order whose name has not been laid before Us, Our Heirs or Successors, by one of Our or Their Principal Secretaries of State, and who has not at the time of his or her nomination rendered at least twenty-five years' meritorious service in the United Kingdom, or in Our Colonies or Protectorates: Provided that in a Colony or Protectorate which, under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying to that Colony or Protectorate, is recognised as unhealthy the minimum period of service shall be sixteen years: Provided also that it shall at any time be competent to Us, our Heirs or Successors, to appoint specially to the Order persons who, not having completed the aforesaid periods of service, have rendered such eminently meritorious service as to qualify them in Our opinion to become recipients of this distinction.

Seventhly.—It is ordained that when We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be pleased to appoint any person to be a Companion of the Order, such appointment shall be made by Warrant under Our Sign Manual and countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Eighthly.—It is ordained that the Decoration to be worn by Companions of the Order shall be for men, a Badge or Medallion of gold and enamel, bearing Our Imperial and Royal Cypher, and the words "For Faithful Service," both to be executed in dark blue enamel on a plaque or shield of gold, surrounded by a seven-pointed star of silver, surmounted by the Imperial Crown; and for women, a Badge or Medallion, in all respects similar to the Badge or Medallion for men, save that the plaque or shield of gold shall be surrounded by a wreath of laurel in silver instead of a star, surmounted by the Imperial Crown.

Ninthly.—It is ordained that the Decoration shall be worn by male Companions on the left breast suspended by a ribbon of one inch and a half in width, consisting of a strip of blue between two strips of crimson of equal size, and by female Companions on the left shoulder, suspended by a ribbon of the same colour and width, fashioned into a bow.

Tenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We are pleased to confer the Decoration shall be published in the "London Gazette."

Eleventhly.—It is ordained that Companions of the Order shall have the privilege of adding the letters "I.S.O." after their names.

Twelfthly.—It is ordained that Members of any Order of Knighthood shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible to become Companions of this Order, and that male Companions of this Order shall in no way be debarred from becoming thereafter Members of any Order of Knighthood for which their services may qualify them.

Thirteenthly.—It is ordained that an officer shall be appointed to the Order who shall be styled "Secretary and Registrar," and who shall be ex-officio a Companion of the Order.

Fourteenthly.—It is ordained that the Secretary and Registrar of this Order shall be appointed by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and shall have the custody of the Archives of the Order, which shall be kept in the Office of Our Secretary of State for the Home Department. He shall attend the service of the Order and shall execute such directions as he may receive from Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Fifteenthly.—It is ordained that those Members of Our Civil Services who are not eligible for appointment as Companions of this Order may, on retirement from Our said Services after not less than twenty-five years of meritorious service in the United Kingdom, or in one of our Colonies or Protectorates, or not less than sixteen years of such service in a Colony or Protectorate which, under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying to that Colony or Protectorate, is recognised as unhealthy, be awarded a Medal to be designated "The Imperial Service Medal," provided that no such Medal shall be granted except on the recommendation of one of Our Principal Secretaries of State. Provided also that it shall be competent to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, to confer the Medal upon not more than five Civil servants in each year, who have retired after less than twenty-five years' service, should special circumstances in Our or Their opinion justify the grant.

Sixteenthly.—It is ordained that the Imperial Service Medal for men and for women shall in all respects be similar to the Badge of the Imperial Service Order for men and women respectively, save that the plaque shall be of silver instead of gold, and that the star or wreath of laurel shall be of bronze instead of silver; and it is ordained that the Imperial Service Medal shall be worn in a similar manner to that prescribed for the Imperial Service Order, and that these medals shall bear on the reverse the name of the recipient.

Seventeenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those persons to whom the Imperial Service Medal shall be granted shall be duly published in the "London Gazette."

Eighteenthly.—It is ordained that the Imperial Service Order shall rank next to, and immediately after, Our Distinguished Service Order, and before the Fifth Class of Our Royal Victorian Order, and the Companions thereof shall, in all places and assemblies whatsoever, have place and precedency next to, and immediately after, the Companions of the Distinguished Service Order, and shall rank among themselves according to the dates of their respective nominations.

Lastly.—We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these Regulations, or any part thereof, by a notification under the Sign Manual of the Sovereign of the Order.

Given at Our Court at St. James's this twenty-seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the eighth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

H. J. GLADSTONE.

By a further Royal Warrant, dated 17 June, 1909, the number of Companions of the Order was raised from four hundred and twenty-five to four hundred and seventy-five.

THE KAISAR-I-HIND MEDAL.

THIS Decoration was instituted to reward important and useful services rendered to Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria in Her Indian Empire in the advancement of the public interests of the said Empire, and was designated as "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India."

It was ordained that any person without distinction of race, occupation, position, or sex, shall be eligible for this Decoration who shall have distinguished himself (or herself) by important and useful service in the advancement of the public interest in India.

It was ordained that there shall be two classes of the Decoration to be styled respectively "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India" of the First Class and "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India" of the Second Class.

It was ordained that awards of the Medal of the First Class shall be made by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under Her Sign Manual, and countersigned by One of Her Principal Secretaries of State, and such awards shall only be made on a recommendation to Her Majesty by Her Secretary of State for India.

It was ordained that awards of the Medal of the Second Class shall be made by Her Majesty's Governor-General of India for the time being.

It was ordained that the Medal shall consist of an oval-shaped Badge or Decoration,—in gold for the First Class and in silver for the Second Class,—with Her Majesty's Royal Cypher in the centre on one side and on the reverse the words "Kaisar-i-Hind, for Public Service in India," and that it shall be suspended on the left breast by a dark blue ribbon.

It was ordained that the names of those persons to whom a Medal of either class may be awarded shall be published in the "Gazette of India," and in the Gazette of the Local Government under the jurisdiction of which the service was rendered, and shall be entered in all Civil and Official lists, and that a registry of such names shall be kept in the Office of the Home Department of the Government of India.

It was ordained that if any one, after having received either of the Medals, again renders such service as, if he had not received such Medal, would have entitled him to it, such further service shall be recorded by a bar attached to the ribbon by which the Medal is suspended; and for every such additional service an additional bar may be added.

In order to make such additional provisions as shall effectually preserve pure this honourable decoration, it was ordained that if any person on whom the Medal of the First Class is conferred be guilty of any crime or disgraceful conduct which in Her Majesty's Judgment disqualifies him for the same, his name shall, by an especial Warrant under Her Sign Manual, to be countersigned by one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, be forthwith erased from the lists of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred, and his Medal forfeited and returned to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors; and in the case of those who have been awarded Medals of the Second Class, such erasure of their names from the lists of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred and forfeiture of their Medals shall be effected under the Order of Her Majesty's Governor-General of India for the time being, to whom their Medals shall be returned. And every person to whom the said Medal is given shall, before receiving the same, enter into an engagement to return the same if his name shall be erased as aforesaid.

Provided that Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall at all times have power to restore the Medal of the First Class to any person who may have been deprived of it when circumstances render such restoration just and expedient, and that in like circumstances Her Majesty's Governor-General of India for the time being shall have power by his Order to restore the Medal of the Second Class to any person who may have been deprived of it.

Any additional Act of Bravery is recorded by a Bar being attached to the Ribbon by which the Cross is suspended. A Pension of £10 per annum is bestowed upon the non-commissioned officers and men who receive the Cross; and a further Pension of £5 a year is given with each Bar.

By another Warrant, bearing date December 13, 1858, it was declared, that Non-Military persons, who, as Volunteers, had borne arms against the Mutineers in India should be considered eligible to receive the decoration of the Victoria Cross, subject to the rules and ordinances already made for the government thereof.

The Albert Medal.

FOR SAVING LIFE AT SEA.

FOR SAVING LIFE ON LAND.

The Albert Medal was instituted by Royal Warrant, dated March 7, 1866, for the purpose of rewarding by a mark of Royal favour, heroic actions performed on sea or land.

This Warrant was amended by others bearing date 12 April, 1867, 30 April, 1877, 13 Sept. 1881, 12 March, 1891, and 24 March, 1904. By Royal Warrant, 5 June, 1905, the following rules and ordinances were established:—

I. It is ordained that the Decorations "For Gallantry in Saving Life at Sea" shall be styled "The Albert Medal of the First Class" and "The Albert Medal of the Second Class."

II. It is ordained that "The Albert Medal of the First Class," when conferred for gallantry in saving life at sea, shall consist of a gold oval-shaped Badge or Decoration, enamelled in dark blue, with a Monogram composed of the letters V and A, interlaced with an Anchor erect in gold, surrounded by a Garter in bronze, inscribed in raised letters of gold, "For Gallantry in Saving Life at Sea," and surmounted by a representation of the Crown of His Royal Highness the lamented Prince Consort, and suspended from a dark blue riband of an inch and three-eighths in width, with four white longitudinal stripes.

III. It is ordained that "The Albert Medal of the Second Class," when conferred for gallantry in saving life at sea, shall consist of the like shaped enamelled Badge, save and except in this class it shall be entirely worked in bronze, instead of gold and bronze, and shall be suspended from a dark blue riband of an inch and three-eighths of an inch in width, with two white longitudinal stripes.

IV. It is ordained that the Medals shall only be awarded to those of Our faithful subjects and others who, in saving or endeavouring to save the lives of others from shipwreck or other perils of the sea, have endangered their own lives, and that such award shall be made only on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department:

Provided always that the preliminary steps and inquiry concerning the award of either Albert Medal inscribed "For Gallantry in Saving Life at Sea," shall, if the award be to any one belonging to the Royal Navy or the Royal Marines, be with the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and in other cases with the President of the Board of Trade.

V. It is ordained that the names of those persons upon whom We may be pleased to confer either of the Albert Medals inscribed "For Gallantry in Saving Life at Sea," shall be published in the "London Gazette," and that a Register of the names of such of these persons as belong to the Royal Navy or the Royal Marines, shall be kept in the Office of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and a Register of the names of the persons not belonging to the Royal Navy or the Royal Marines upon whom We may be pleased to confer either Medal inscribed as aforesaid, shall be kept in the Office of the Board of Trade.

VI. It is ordained that the Decoration for gallantry in saving lives endangered otherwise than by perils of the sea, shall be styled "The Albert Medal of the First Class" and "The Albert Medal of the Second Class," and shall be inscribed "For Gallantry in Saving Life on Land."

VII. It is ordained that "The Albert Medal of the First Class," when conferred for gallantry in saving life on land, shall consist of a gold oval-shaped Badge or Decoration, enamelled in crimson, with a Monogram composed of the letters V and A, erect in gold, surrounded by a Garter in bronze, inscribed in raised letters of gold, "For Gallantry in Saving Life on Land," and surmounted by a representation of the Crown of His Royal Highness the lamented Prince Consort, and suspended from a crimson riband of an inch and three-eighths in width, with four white longitudinal stripes.

VIII. It is ordained that "The Albert Medal of the Second Class," when conferred for gallantry in saving life on land, shall consist of the like shaped enamelled badge, save and except that it shall be entirely worked in bronze, instead of gold and bronze, and shall be suspended from a crimson riband of an inch and three-eighths of an inch in width, with two white longitudinal stripes.

IX. It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We may be pleased to confer either of these Decorations shall be published in the "London Gazette," and that a register thereof shall be kept in the Office of Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

X. It is ordained, that the Medals shall only be awarded to those of Our faithful subjects and others who, in saving or endeavouring to save the lives of others from accidents in mines, on railways, or at fires, or other peril other than perils of the sea, have endangered their own lives, and that such award shall be made only on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

The following Rules and Ordinances are ordained for the government of the Decorations whether awarded for Gallantry in Saving Life at Sea, or on land.

XI. It is ordained that "The Albert Medal of the First Class" shall be confined to cases of extreme and heroic daring, and that "The Albert Medal of the Second Class" shall be given in cases which, though falling within the cases contemplated by this Warrant, are not sufficiently distinguished to deserve "The Albert Medal of the First Class."

XII. It is ordained that each Medal shall be suspended from the left breast.

XIII. It is ordained that any act of gallantry which is worthy of recognition by the award of the Albert Medal, but is performed by one upon whom the Decoration has already been conferred, may on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, be recorded by a bar attached to the riband by which the medal is suspended; and for every such additional act an additional bar may be added.

XIV. In order to make such additional provision as shall effectually preserve pure these most honourable Decorations, it is ordained that if any person on whom either of such Decorations is conferred be guilty of any crime or disgraceful conduct which in Our judgment disqualifies him for the same, his name shall, by an especial Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, be forthwith erased from the register of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred, and his Medal shall be forfeited. And every person to whom the said Medal is given shall, before receiving the same, enter into an engagement to return the same if his name shall be so erased as aforesaid under this regulation. It is hereby further declared, that We, Our Heirs, and Successors, shall be the sole judges of the circumstance demanding such expulsion. Moreover, We shall at all times have power to order that any person who may at any time have been expelled shall be restored to the enjoyment of the Decoration.

XV. The Warrants of the 7th March, 1866, the 12th April, 1867, the 30th April, 1877, the 13th September, 1881, the 12th March, 1891, and the 24th March, 1904, are hereby repealed.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, this fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and five, in the fifth year of our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

A. AKERS-DOUGLAS.

By His Majesty's Command,

H. J. GLADSTONE.

By a further Royal Warrant, dated 1 Dec. 1909, it was ordained that the Edward Medal of the First Class and the Edward Medal of the Second Class shall be awarded to those of Our faithful subjects who in course of Industrial Employment endanger their own lives in saving or endeavouring to save the lives of others from perils incurred in connection with such Industrial Employment in these Our Dominions, and in Territories under Our protection or jurisdiction, and such awards shall be made only on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Where the said Medal is granted otherwise than for acts performed in Mines, the Medal shall bear Our effigy on the obverse, and on the reverse a suitable design, with the words "For Courage."

THE KING'S POLICE MEDAL.

Instituted by Royal Warrant, dated 7th July, 1909.

EDWARD R. and I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting!

Whereas We have taken into Our Royal consideration the good services which are rendered by officers of the Constabulary Forces and by persons serving in Fire Brigades within Our Dominions and in Territories under Our Protection or Jurisdiction and the heroic acts of courage and instances of conspicuous devotion to duty of such persons which are from time to time brought to Our notice:

And whereas We are desirous of distinguishing such meritorious conduct by some mark of Our Royal favour:

We do by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, institute and create a new Medal to be awarded for such acts of courage and conspicuous devotion to duty.

Firstly.—It is ordained that the Medal shall be designated and styled "The King's Police Medal."

Secondly.—It is ordained that the King's Police Medal shall consist of a circular Medal of Silver with Our Effigy on the obverse, and on the reserve a design emblematic of Protection from danger, and shall bear on the rim the name of the person to whom the Medal is awarded.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that the Medal shall only be awarded to those of Our Faithful Subjects and others who being members of a recognized Police Force or of a properly organized Fire Brigade within Our Dominions or in Territories under Our Protection or Jurisdiction, have performed acts of exceptional courage and skill or have exhibited conspicuous devotion to duty; and that such award shall be made only on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We may be pleased to confer this Decoration shall be published in the London Gazette, and that a Register thereof shall be kept in the Office of Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Such Register shall show the name and rank of the person holding the Medal, the Police Force or Fire Brigade of which he is or was a member, and particulars of the action for which the Medal has been awarded.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that each Medal shall be suspended from the left breast, and the riband, of an inch and three-eighths in width, shall be dark blue with a narrow silver stripe on either side.

Sixthly.—It is ordained that any act of gallantry which is worthy of recognition by the award of the King's Police Medal, but is performed by one upon whom the Decoration has already been conferred, may, on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, be recorded by a Bar attached to the riband by which the Medal is suspended; and for every such additional act an additional Bar may be added.

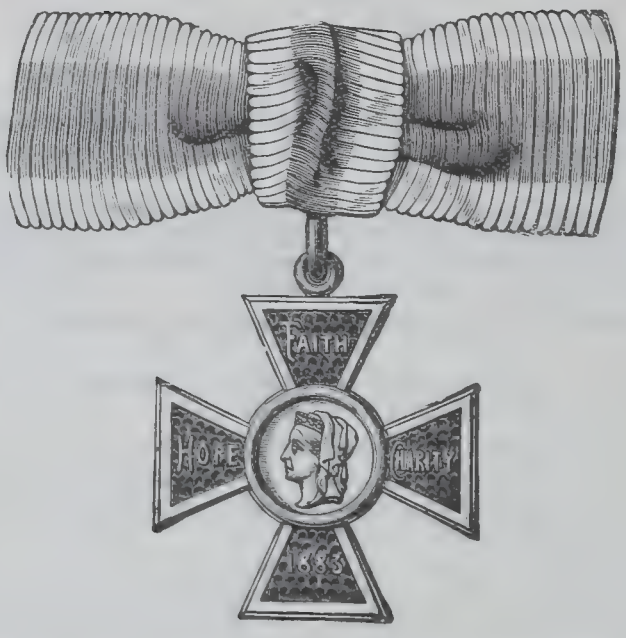
Seventhly.—In order to make such provision as shall effectually preserve pure this honourable Decoration, it is ordained that if any person on whom the Decoration is conferred be guilty of any crime or disgraceful conduct which in Our judgment disqualifies him for the same, this Medal shall, by an especial Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, be forfeited, and his name shall be forthwith erased from the Register of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred. And every person to whom the said Medal is given shall before receiving the same enter into an agreement to return the same, if his name shall be so erased as aforesaid under this regulation. It is hereby further declared that We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be the sole judges of the circumstances demanding such forfeiture.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the seventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the ninth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

H. J. GLADSTONE.

The Royal Red Cross.



THIS Decoration was instituted by Royal Warrant, dated 23 April, 1883, for the purpose of rewarding service rendered by certain persons in nursing the Sick and Wounded of the Army and Navy. Under this Royal Warrant, the following are the rules and ordinances:—

The Decoration to be styled and designated "The Royal Red Cross," and to consist of a Cross, enamelled crimson, edged with gold, having on the Arms thereof the words Faith, Hope, Charity, with the date of the institution of the Decoration; the centre having thereon Queen Victoria's Effigy. On the reverse side Her Majesty's Royal and Imperial Cypher and Crown shown in relief on the centre.

The Cross to be attached to a dark blue riband edged red, of one inch in width, tied in a bow and worn on the left shoulder.

The Decoration to be worn by the Queen Regnant, the Queen Consort, or the Queen Dowager of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and by any of the Princesses of the Royal Family of Great Britain and Ireland on whom it may be conferred.

The Decoration may be conferred upon any Ladies, whether subjects or foreign persons, who may be recommended to the Sovereign's notice by the Secretary of State for War for special exertions in providing for the nursing, or for attending to, sick and wounded soldiers and sailors.

This Decoration may be conferred upon any Nursing Sisters, whether subjects or foreign persons, who may be recommended to the Sovereign's notice by the Secretary of State for War, or, as the case may be, by the First Lord of the Admiralty through the said Secretary of State, for special devotion and competency which they may have displayed in their nursing duties with the Army in the Field, or in the Naval and Military Hospitals.

The names of those upon whom the Decoration may be conferred shall be published in the "London Gazette," and a registry thereof kept in the office of the Secretary of State for War.

If any person on whom such distinction shall be conferred shall by her conduct become unworthy of it, her name shall be erased from the register of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred, and may be restored if such restoration should be justified by the circumstances of the case.

FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS.

May 8th, 1911.

THE King has been pleased to command that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those hitherto in force :—

I. It is The King's wish that no subject of His Majesty shall wear the Insignia of any Foreign Order without having previously obtained His Majesty's permission to do so, signified either :

(a) By Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual, or (b) By private permission conveyed through His Majesty's Private Secretary.

II. Permission given by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual will enable the Insignia of the Foreign Order to be worn at all times and without any restriction.

Private permission will only enable the Insignia to be worn on the occasions specified in the terms of the letter from The King's Private Secretary conveying the Royal Sanction.

III. The full and unrestricted permission by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual is designed, subject to the exception mentioned in Rule 4 (a) respecting British naval or military officers during hostilities, to meet cases where the Decoration may be said to have been earned by some valuable service rendered to the Head of the State conferring it, or to the State itself. The private or restricted permission is contemplated for Decorations which are more or less of a complimentary character. In either case the matter will be submitted to the King by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

IV. Full and unrestricted permission by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual is contemplated in the following cases :

For a Decoration conferred—

(a) On an officer in His Majesty's naval or military forces lent to a Foreign Government; on an officer in His Majesty's naval or military forces attached by his Government to a Foreign Navy or Army during hostilities; or on any British official lent to a Foreign Government and not in receipt of any emoluments from British public funds during the period of such loan.

(b) On any person not at the time in the service of the Crown, who, while himself outside the limits of His Majesty's Dominions, has rendered valuable services to the Head of the State conferring the Order, or to the State itself, within the period of two years immediately preceding the notification of the Decoration to His Majesty's Government provided for in Rule V. The term "service of the Crown" (supra) comprises any person holding a Royal Commission, or any person in receipt of a salary from public funds in the United Kingdom, or in any British Dominion, Colony, or Protectorate.

(c) On any British subject employed in a Foreign Embassy or Legation in the United Kingdom.

V. The desire of the Head of a Foreign State to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, or the fact that he has done so, must be notified to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs either through the British Diplomatic Representative accredited to the Head of the Foreign State, or through his Diplomatic Representative at the Court of St. James. His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall be under no obligation to consider claims that are not brought to his notice through one of these channels.

VI. When His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken The King's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained His Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to wear the Insignia of a Foreign Order, he shall signify the same to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department in order that he may cause a Warrant, if it be a case for the issue of a Warrant as defined in Rule IV, to be prepared for the Royal Sign-Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by The King, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

Persons in whose favour such Warrants are issued will be required to pay to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department a stamp duty of 10*s*.

The Warrant signifying His Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a clause providing that His Majesty's licence and permission does not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of His Majesty's Realms.

VII. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept the Decoration of a Foreign Order, he will, at any future time, be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Decoration and common to every person upon whom such Decoration is conferred.

VIII. Medals which constitute a particular class of a Foreign Order are subject in all respects to the above Regulations in the same manner as higher grades of the Order, except that permission to wear will be given by Letter and not by Royal Warrant. The King's permission must be obtained for any other Medal to be worn. No permission is needed to accept a Foreign Medal if it is not intended to be worn.

IX. Naval and Military Attachés to His Majesty's Missions abroad may, at the termination of their appointments, be given restricted private permission to wear, on certain specific occasions, the Insignia of a Foreign Order conferred upon them by the Chief of the State only in which their headquarters were situated.

Foreign Titles of Nobility borne by British Subjects.

 The following personages hold, either by grant or inheritance, titles of Foreign Nobility, but they derive from such titles no privilege, position, or precedence in this country. Strictly speaking, each person bearing the title should have a Royal Licence to do so.

Lineage.

THOMAS DIMSDALE, 1ST BARON DIMSDALE, M.D., of The Priory, in the co. of Hertford, b. 29 May, 1712, member for the borough of Hertford in two successive parliaments, was grandson of Robert Dimsdale, who accompanied William Penn to America in 1684, and 4th son of Sir John Dimsdale, Knt. of Theydon Gernon, in Essex, by Susanna, dau. of Thomas Bowyer, of Albury Hall, Herts. Dr. Dimsdale, in 1745, made a voluntary and gratuitous offer of his services as assistant to the medical staff of the army sent to the north, under the command of the Duke of Cumberland, to suppress the Scotch rebellion; and he continued in the service until after the surrender of Carlisle to the king's forces, when he received the thanks of his royal highness the commander-in-chief. The ample fortune Dr. Dimsdale enjoyed had induced him to retire for some years from the practice of his profession, when his high reputation in the art of inoculating for the small-pox having reached the Empress CATHERINE of Russia, he was especially invited, in 1762, by her majesty to the Court of St. Petersburg, for the purpose of inoculating herself and the grand duke, her son, which invitation he accepted and acquitted himself so much to the satisfaction of his imperial patients, that her majesty rewarded his services with the appointment of actual councillor of state, and physician to her imperial majesty, with an annuity of £500 per annum, conferring upon him, by letters patent at St. Petersburg 13 Feb. 1769, a Barony of the Russian empire, with the title of "Honourable" attached, to be borne by him and the eldest of his lawful descendants in succession. She likewise gave him the sum of £10,000 sterling, with £2,000 for the expenses of his journey, and presented him with a miniature of herself and the grand duke, richly set with diamonds. His 2nd son, Nathaniel, who had accompanied him to the Russian Court, had conferred upon him, at the same time, a similar dignity, with similar limitations. Her imperial majesty was further pleased to grant to both father and son, and their lawful descendants, permission to add to their family arms, a wing of the displayed black eagle of the Russian imperial coat, on a gold shield placed in the centre, with the usual helmet over the shield, surmounted by the baron's coronet. A patent in accordance was ordered by the empress to be made out, embellished with her majesty's portrait and other splendid ornaments, and delivered to the Barons Dimsdale. At the date of the grant Canada formed part of the Dominion of France, but when the recognition was accorded, it was a Colony of Great Britain and Ireland.

Lineage.

The first settler in Canada, in 1641, was Charles le Moyne de Longueüil. His eldest son,

Charles, 1st Baron de Longueüil, a distinguished military commander, was the eldest son of Charles Le Moyne, of Longueüil, and his wife, Dame Catherine Primot. He was b. 1656, received the Cross of St. Louis, and was further created by Louis XIV., in requital of his eminent services in Canada (he had been wounded in the siege of Quebec and in the war against the Iroquois), a Baron of France, and had his lordship of Longueüil, in Canada, erected into a barony, with limitation to his descendants male and female. Charles, 1st Baron de Longueüil, was appointed governor of Montreal in 1724, and d. 7 June, 1729, being buried with great pomp at Villemarie. His son and heir (by his first wife),

Charles le Moyne, 2nd Baron de Longueüil, b. 18 Oct. 1687, became eventually governor at Montreal, and received the cross of St. Louis. He m. 29 April, 1728, Mademoiselle Catherine Charlotte de Grey; d. 17 Jan. 1755, and was s. by his son,

Charles Jacques le Moyne, 3rd Baron de Longueüil, knight of St. Louis, b. at the Castle of Longueüil, 26 July, 1724; m. 7 Jan. 1754, Mademoiselle Marie Anne Fleury d'Eschambault, and was killed in action, 27 Sept. 1755, leaving a dau. and heiress, Louisa Evelyne Selina Winton Northwick (Countess for life); m. 29 April, 1905, Cecil de C. Pelham-Clay, of 43, Royal Crescent, W., late 5th batt. Roy. Munster Fusiliers.

Lineage.

Ever since the conquest by the Venetians of Cephalonia, the largest of the Ionian Islands, the Metaxà family (of ancient Venetian descent), had been the most powerful and influential house in the island, holding (as stated in the Letters Patent) Military Offices, and supplying the wherewithal to defray the expensive maintenance of the Galleys of the Oriental Islands of Venice.

COLONEL GIOVANNI BATTISTA METAXÀ, Cavaliere di San Marco, father of the 1st Count, commandod the corps of Cephaloniotes at the siege of Candia against the Ottomans in 1658. At the reconquest of Santa Maura by the Venetians in 1684, he commanded the Cephalonian troops, raised by his sons, Anzolo and Anastasio; whilst his brother, Giacomo Metaxà, commanded the Galleys of the Islands. He was also present with his sons at the siege of Nauplia 1686-7, when the latter greatly distinguished themselves.

When the war of Greek independence broke out, Count Andrea (after whom the present Count is named) was among the first to join the national movement, and in 1821, appeared at the head of a body of troops, raised at his own expense. To enable him to do this, he sold his patrimony and broke up his quiet home in order to expose his life to the gallant struggle in which he fought side by side with the deliverers of Greece. His disinterested conduct and military success, especially in the affairs of 1822, gained for him the esteem and confidence of the revolutionary chiefs, and in the same year he was deputed by the provisional government to represent them in the Congress at Verona. Under Capo d'Istria and his brother the Count Augustine, his influence increased so much, that on the latter's resignation, he was chosen to the vacant place in the Administrative Commission of the Seven, from 1832 to 1833. Under the Bavarian rule he served his country in foreign missions; in 1856 was appointed minister at Constantinople, which post he occupied until the rupture of diplomatic relations between Turkey and Greece, in consequence of the events that took place in Epirus and Thessaly.

JEAN BAPTISTE METAXÀ, was a Count of the powerful Venetian Republic. This title (with many privileges) was conferred upon Capt. Anzolo Metaxà and all his male descendants in perpetuum (by Franciscus Mauricceno), on 12 July, 1691, for his eminent and valorous military achievements and political services, rendered to the Venetian Empire, in the Ionian Islands, Rumelia and Livadia, having raised several thousand men, at his personal expense, to support the Venetian Empire. The family of Metaxà also distinguished themselves in favour of the freedom of Greece in 1821, and up to the present period hold important appointments under the government. The title of "Counts," according to the original grant of the Venetian Empire, was recognized by the British Government, in the United States of the Ionian Islands, on 3 June, 1840.

This title of Count descends by inheritance; even the daughters of a count have the right to assume the title of Countess, but it is not inherited by their descendants.

JEAN BAPTISTE, 7th COUNT METAXÀ, became naturalized on 30 Nov. 1846. He was b. 24 May, 1806; m. 30 Oct. 1841, Selina Jane Rancliffe, only surviving child of the late Capt. Lineage.

This is a branch of the Sept derived from CATHOIR MOIR, King of Leinster, by his second son, DAIRE BARRACH, who inhabited the territory of Hy-Bairrche, in Queen's Co. and co. Carlow, from which they were partially driven after the invasion of 1172 by Baron Walter de Riddlesford. They derived their surname from Gorman, chief of the sept. O'Heerin, a learned historian (1420), in his Topographical Poem, page 87, writes:—

"The territory of the Ui-Bairrche of the fine glebe
Of the race of the melodious Daire Barrach;
O'Gorman received the lands,
Rapid was he in the battle meeting."

Frequent mention is made of the sept in the Annals of the Four Masters, in which its origin is traced to the most remote antiquity. O'Gormans served in the French army since the 17th century; and their nobility was confirmed, on a report made to the King by his genealogist Cherin, and members of the family were in consequence admitted to the "Honours of the Court" (Honneurs de la Cour), in 1785. Subsequently several of the family served in the Austrian army, the last one being the late Lieutenant-Colonel O'Gorman, a Knight of Malta in the Bohemian langue, who died in his Château of Choloy, in Lorraine, without issue from his marriage with Léonie, dau. of the Count de Lambertye.
